

ACBA
8-9-18

Welcome! Any visitors? (Introduction). Glad to have you!

Announcements:

1. The How-To-Festival at the library last month went well. Helen and Liam manned the table and were busy with visitors! Bob Cole arrived with a truckload of his goodies but wasn't able to climb the hill to the site. Thanks to Bob for trying!
 2. Teri Goodman generously donated to ACBA money collected from the sale of some of her chickens' eggs and has donated some eggs for door prizes. Thanks to Teri and her chickens!
 3. Tina Roberts and H.S. Greene have generously donated a number of items for door prizes. Thank you both!
 4. We have t-shirts and caps for sale - $10 each, or any two items for $15.
- 4. Mention anything about the Field Day for 5th-graders on September 11?*

Does anyone else have any announcements?

Did anyone here attend the state meeting? (If you did, is there anything interesting to share?)

Would anyone like to share a hive report?

Tonight's guest speaker is Jim Rash, one of our own members. His focus tonight will be on winterizing. I'll let him introduce himself.

Jim's presentation

@ halfway thru meeting, stop for break.

Jim resumes presentation

Questions?

Door prizes:

1. Liquid soap (courtesy of Tina Roberts and Orianna Naturals)
2. Two-bar pack of handcrafted soap (courtesy of Tina Roberts and Orianna Naturals)
3. ACBA cap
4. ACBA t-shirt (winner can choose a size from the table)

Thanks for coming! Hope to see you next month on the 13th! Info about the meeting will be sent out.

Be sure to leave your name tags on the table in the hall!